

MEDIA RELEASE

Release date: 23 March 2016

List of Winning Candidates

Please find the web link to the list of winning candidates for the NAV Executive Committee election- <http://www.nav.org.au/election2016/>. The Commission, after considering all the application withdrawals received, has published the winning list. This winning list automatically supersedes the second list published by this Commission earlier on 20 March 2016.

All executive positions are uncontested therefore the election is not required and therefore will not proceed on Saturday, 2 April 2016.

On behalf of the members of the NAV election commission, I would like to express gratitude to all the candidates who took part in the NAV election process and made this successful. Your active participation and constructive feedback was always vital for the commission to successfully deliver its duties and responsibilities.

I personally would like to thank all the team members of the NAV election commission for their professional approach of dealing the matters related to this election.

We also would like to congratulate the newly elected NAV executive committee and wish them successful two years tenure.

The oath of office ceremony of the new NAV committee will take place on Saturday, 9 April 2016 at the NAV Community Awards Night 2016.

The election commission would like to sign off from this election process.

Jog Limbu

The Commissioner

Election Commission NAV

Attached:

Final list of candidates <http://www.nav.org.au/election2016/>